FINAL APPEAL IS ISSUED.

Bradley Wilson Calls Growers of Fourteen Counties to Meet Tomorrow Afternoon.

BOURBON ALSO INCLUDED.

Campaign Chairman Sanguine as to the Outcome of the Plan to Cut Out Crop.

The Burley Tobacco Society at its meeting with the Burley Tobacco Union at Lexington Monday night refused to endorse the cut-out movement. The reason assigned for the action of the Burley Society is that the tobacco Union has not enough of the acreage in the burley belt pledged to the movement to warrant the support of the Leffus faction.

In a final effort to save the cut-out Chairman Bradley Wilson Tuesday night issued an appeal to the growers of the fourteen counties which the Burley Society people had said made no showing in the cut-out, pledges to get together for a final effort to save the movement.

Chairman Wilson urges the growers of these fourteen counties to hold meetings Saturday at 1:30 o'clock with a view to securing a sufficient number of pledges to win over the endorsement of the Burley Tobacco Society.

Chairman Wilson's letter to the growers follows:

"To the tobacco growers of Fayette, Bourbon, Bath, Montgomery, Clark, Madison, Garrard, Lincoln, Boyle, Anderson, Washington, Woodford, Scott and Jessamine counties:

"By request of the District Board of the Burley Tobacco Union, I desire to notify you of the demands made on the Burley Tobacco Union by the Executive Committee of the Burley Tobacco Society.

"Their refusal to endorse a cut-out of the 1911 crop was based upon the ground that we had not made enough showing of strength in the above named counties.

"I do not regard their demands as to the counties of Scott, Clark and Anderson seriously, for the simple reason that we have always considered those counties as old pool counties, and in fact we did not make an effort to sign them on a cut-out pledge, as we figured that they would swing into line with other pool counties. You will also notice Montgomery and Bath in their list. I am sure the Executive Committee of the Burley Tobacco Society overlooked the wonderful showing made in those counties on signed pledges for the cut-out of the 1911 crop.

"I truly feel that the counties of Fayette, Madison, Garrard, Lincoln, Boyle, Woodford and Jessamine should make a better showing of signed pledges and in accord with my instructions, I hereby respectfully request you to meet at your respective county seats on Saturday, February 11, at 1:30 o'clock to take up such action and sign enough pledges to enable us to put it up to the Burley Tobacco Society for their endorsement before it is everlastingly too late to save any interest in the 1909 or 1910 holdings.

"Gentlemen, I truly believe that the people in the old pool counties want to help in this fight and will do so just as soon as they know the growers in the independent counties have signed a reasonable number of pledges. Again I urge each county to take such interest as to bring up your county to a reasonable figure or per cent at once. Kindly write or phone my office for further information. Our number is 1416, both phones.

"Respectfully submitted,
"BRADLEY WILSON,
"Chairman Campaign Committee."

Chairman Wilson passed through Paris yesterday enroute to Lexington, after a short trip through Nicholas and Mason counties looking over the ground and says he is very much encouraged from there ports concerning the interest taken by the growers in the cut-out movement in the counties in which he visited.

Asked as to what the probable result of the meetings that had been called in fourteen of the counties composing a portion of the Burley belt Mr. Wilson said: "I feel more encouraged now than at any time during the campaign, and am confident we will have enough of the acreage pledged within the next few days to enlist the support of the Burley Tobacco Society. We will not invade any of the old pool counties for pledges, and will leave the result of the campaign of the next few days to determine the decision of that body. Bourbon county is holding back and we will not push the matter here, but when the time comes I am looking for her to fall in line with the rest. Pledges from independent counties are coming in rapidly and at our meeting in Lexington on February 20, we will most certainly make a convincing showing."

High-Class Artists Secured.

The Skovgaard Concert Company will give a concert at the City School Auditorium, Monday night, February 27, under the auspices of the ladies of the Baptist church. Admission 50 cents.

In Berlin, Germany, at the violin virtuoso Axel Skovgaard's concert at the Berliner High School of Music, more than 800 people were crowded in to the hall, where standing room was at a premium. It was an evening full of delight, and stamped Herr Skovgaard as an artist of the first rank.
